

Do they know who you are?

Have you been asked:

Your full name and your date of birth?

Have the staff checked that your identification band is correct?

This is important as it ensures you get the right blood.

Remember - it is OK to ask the staff to make sure they know who you are.

